Footnotes
RON THE GREEK took up the role of stalker soon after the start, sat patiently parked in the two path just off the hind quarters of the pacesetter, crept up to apply more pressure at the five-sixteenths pole, still on hold, poked a head in front as the field headed into the stretch, responded positively when given his cue in upper stretch, drew off, crossing the wire under hand encouragement. BIGGER IS BETTOR rode the rail, made a rail run on the turn to achieve a good striking position by the quarter pole, was angled outward after settling into upper stretch, hesitated just off another's heels in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole before completing the maneuver, got up to be well clear of the remaining twosome for the place. MOST HAPPY FELLA quickly established control and almost as quickly tucked along the inside, was rated cutting the early splits, under the watchful of the top one, needed some encouragement to maintain that advantage departing the backstretch, yielded nonetheless despite being called upon late on the turn, weakened after turning for home into the show slot. MORE THAN A REASON raced along the outside and failed to menace. RAIL TRIP stumbled badly at the start, losing the rider as a result. There was a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the start of the race before the result was declared official.
