Footnotes
BIRDRUN away in good order, cleared the field under his own power to establish control, tucked to the inside about midway on the first turn, set the splits, well rated along the inside and being mildly pressed by the closest pursuer, continued along on the same scenario until the three-eighths pole, was asked for a bit more at that station, with all but the trailer, also being asked for a response as well, spurted away to a comfortable advantage during the run through the furlong grounds and safely maintained it, crossing the wire under a vigorous hand ride. DROSSELMEYER patiently stalked the pacesetter from the outside, with the rider applying a good hold on the rein, was released it from it almost simultaneously with the winner, failed to keep pace after turning for home and had to settle for being second best. ALMA D'ORO within striking distance three wide around each bend, lacked the necessary stretch response. ELDAAFER contently tracked the pacesetter while taking the inside route, failed to respond when let out a notch approaching the three-eighths pole. AFLEET AGAIN was rank under restraint during a good portion of the straightaway approach leading up to the first turn, entered the backstretch from the four path, remained well off the inside thereafter, drifted six wide into upper stretch and failed to fire.
