Footnotes
SEVENTH PRAYER stalked the pace off the rail, took aim approaching the quarter pole and dug in determinedly to get up in late yards. RITEPLACE RITETIME rated the pace inside, came under pressure toward the quarter pole and held a slim advantage to deep stretch before reluctantly ceding late yards. SPRINGTIME FROLIC, awkward at the break, rated close about the three path but lacked significant response on the final turn. VIVETTE showed no speed off the rail, angled outward on the final turn, entered the stretch about the five path and leveled off from there. AVRA BANK, fractious in the paddock, was through early. COUNTY MADAM ran out the first turn then showed no speed while saving ground thereafter. CUT IT UP was through early.
