Footnotes
KHAN OF KHANS was lightly coaxed to the front, set the pace taking the inside route, was let out turning for home, with the runner up beginning to crank up the pressure, turned back that one's challenge during the ensuing furlong and edged away, being kept busy to the end. PEWTER stalked the pacesetter under a good hold, issued a bid for the lead approaching the quarter pole and got outkicked. NEW ADVENTURE saved ground throughout and lacked a rally. COGNITO underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn before backing away. MISSILE MOTOR three wide departing the backstretch, was guided out one additional path by the five-sixteenths pole, but failed to muster up the needed closing punch. DR. W placed under a snug hold a few strides out of the starting gate, chose to act rankly rather than rate kindly. while between rivals, was released from the grip and given some rein coming to midpoint on the turn, failed to gain ground appreciably, drifted outward after being put to heavy left handed stick work after entering the stretch, was flashed the whip from the right side to resume a straighter course and failed to get involved thereafter.
