Footnotes
BRIGAND came away well at the start and gained a narrow advantage, cut the pace, well rated from the inside and with GROOMEDFORVICTORY keeping a diligent watch parked out in the two path, had the pilot sitting chilly in the saddle entering the stretch as the foursome behind, all of whom were under a drive, were giving chase, was almost a sixteenth into the stretch run before getting asked for a response, scampered away and remained comfortably in the clear, crossing the wire under a less than vigorous hand ride. MINE OVER MATTER raced three wide around both turns, rider aboard with a snug to firm grip on the reins until midway on the far turn, spun into the stretch having already been put to a drive, proved no match for the top one, but showed good courage to garner the place. SOCIALSAUL under a firm hold in the initial stages, sat loosely placed in the pocket, got let out a notch shortly after entering the far turn, failed to pick up speed, and was asked for more less than a furlong later, cut the corner into the stretch, was forced to take hold as an errant UNCLE T SEVEN was crossing over on to the inside route in upper stretch, got steadied and quickly altered course to the outside in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, settled into proper stride after finishing the maneuver and came home willingly enough to grab the show award. GROOMEDFORVICTORY assumed a forward position before reaching the end of the homestretch, prompted the winner from the two path initially under some light coaxing, had the handling get stronger and stronger, was under a drive by the five-sixteenths marker, stayed within range for a little while longer before backing away. UNCLE T SEVEN sat reserved while racing along the outside for the opening half, got roused after going halfway around the second, launched an abbreviated run to improve position prior to turning for home, came inward with the rider applying right handed stick work in upper stretch, eventually winding up down on the rail, flattened out soon.
