Footnotes

PLEASANT ANGEL, bumped at the start, was reserved off the second flight near the inside racing to the turn, swung out four wide entering upper stretch and produced a steady late response to wrest command in time under firm left handed encouragement. MISSMOLLYBYGOLLY angled inwards to gain a position stalking just off the pacesetter under light rating in the opening half, continued with a steady bid to gain command entering upper stretch, couldn't contain the winner's bid but proved clearly best of the others. CHELAN ECHO, bumped at the start, was righted to track just off the leaders outside a rival in the second flight, shifted out to challenge between foes three deep nearing midstretch and finished evenly late while prevailing for a share. MISSION STORM moved to the fore in the opening stages to dictate the pace on a narrow margin along the inside but failed to sustain her momentum through the final quarter. GIVENCHI hopped a bit at the start, angled to the inside on the backstretch settling off the second flight, shifted outside the eventual winner while briefly advancing in tandem with that foe racing through the bend but lacked the needed final response while racing four wide through the stretch. AULT STREET tracked off the second flight along the inside racing into the turn but came up empty entering upper stretch. RAJULIE broke outwards making some contact with the eventual winner, was righted to track the pacesetter inside a rival in the second flight racing into the bend, was urged to challenge between foes in upper stretch but proved empty in late stages. EMILY OSTROSKI settled into stride near the inside early, shifted out racing into the turn but never seriously menaced. TROPICALTEMPTATION broke inwards bumping CHELAN ECHO at the start, was soon outdistanced racing into the turn and walked off the course under her own power.
