Footnotes
HALF NELSON away well from the starting gate, pressed the issue from the three path almost from the get-go, raced as a team with OFFICERANDAFOOSE down the backstretch and around the turn, with the pilots of both mounts holding something in reserve for the stretch, continued the duel with the aforementioned rival after turning for home, took over to gain a slim advantage and dug in with good determination to fend off the runner up and preserve it. KID BLAST broke inward sharply, making solid contact with DREAMSGONEWILD as a result, assumed a forward post, underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn, keeping within range of the front runners, spun one path wider into the stretch already under encouragement, closed in with good energy down the lane but missed. OFFICERANDAFOOSE argued with the winner for control while placed two wide, got roused still locked up with that rival heading into the stretch, yielded when no longer able to keep pace, held well to the end, despite sliding into the show slot. SMOKIN CANDY broke out a step bumping with TONINTHIRTEEN, raced along the outside, was under encouragement by midpoint on the turn, displayed a mild kick to grab the final major check. DREAMSGONEWILD got slammed by an errant KID BLAST leaving the starting gate, appeared very green bobbing and weaving in chunks of real estate consisting of several paths at a time while making his way towards the half mile pole, went about his business more professionally three wide for most of the way around the bend, angled outward, in two stages, into the five path by the three-sixteenths pole, came home with interest but had to settle for minor spoils. IRON PLAY coaxed in the two path on the turn, weakened. DR. COPPER tossed his head side to side just before the gate was sprung open, got off a step after bobbling at the start, stalked the front runner from off the inside, kept pace with them for the opening half before backing away. TONINTHIRTEEN was bumped at the break, was under some coaxing almost from the start, took the inside route, was set down commencing at the half mile pole, failed to reach a contending position. NO SURPRISES darted to the inside, faltered after going a half. TIMOTHY'S BOY chased from the outside, was asked for some run by midpoint on the turn, tired.
