Footnotes

QUITE A FEAT sat reserved in midpack for the opening half, was placed in the three path and picked up interest during the run around the second bend, challenged in earnest approaching the quarter pole, wrested away the lead from TROPICAL JETSET just the eighth pole and edged away, driving. THUNDER PRINCESS made contact with CANTSTOPLOVINGSUE at the break, raced from off the rail, was urged along to keep pace departing the backstretch, altered course inward in the late stages and displayed a good kick to garner place honors. TROPICAL JETSET was bumped a short distance from the starting gate, took the opening bend from the three path but was closer to the rail thereafter, moved up to increase the pressure on the leader leaving the half mile pole, took over in short order and was asked for run leading the field into the stretch, came under assault from the top one during the ensuring furlong, held out until just past the eighth pole before relinquishing the front, then weakened. LEFT UPPERCUT broke alertly, cleared the field and was angled over sharply to the inside shortly before reaching the first turn,showed the way, lightly pressed and placed slightly off the rail for the initial half, came under pressure by the second turn, gave in to it, held on reasonably well to grab the final major award. LEMME lacked the needed response. OUT BY TOMORROW leapt up at the break, went on to improve position in the lane past a couple of weak and tired ones. THREE GRAND CITY was taken hold of as LEFT UPPERCUT was maneuvering over to the rail, raced along the outside and folded. CANTSTOPLOVINGSUE bumped with THUNDER PRINCESS at the start, was placed in the three path early on the first turn, remained there and tired. HARRIET'S CHARIOT was squeezed between rivals a few jumps out of the starting gate, raced three wide on the opening turn, was no menace. SARATOGA OASIS bumped after the start, saved ground to no avail.
