Footnotes
ASIYA sat perched three wide off the pacesetter, moved when ready and took over at the midway point on the turn, was sent closer to the inside once sufficiently clear, drew off, ridden out until the final seventy yards. GRAND MERE off the inside, was under brisk hand urging by the half mile pole, was along in time to get the place. MASASI came out a step at the break, causing a momentary loss of balance by the pilot, chased the front runners from the two path, ducked over to the rail leaving the five-sixteenths pole, got outkicked. CORALINA was always outrun. MOMENTARY MAGIC showed the way for the opening half along the outside, was overwhelmed by the top one and retreated. Due to the scratch of BARAGAH, ASIYA ran for purse money only.
