Footnotes

DR. HUDSON was well spotted in the early stages. lodged his bid in upper stretch and drew off late. GAMBLER BILL was just off the early leaders, stayed inside for the drive, loomed a threat but wasn't good enough. ZARB'S HOT FRIEND dueled early then drew clear into the turn, then wasn't good enough. AIRWAR was four wide into the turn, stayed 4-wide into the drive but lacked a solid bid. JAC CADILLAC was five wide into the turn, stayed outside and lacked a stretch bid. SAPELLO LARUE dueled in the early going, bid again near the quarter pole then tired in the stretch. TEHUANTEPECER broke a bit awkwardly, stayed on the rail for the drive but trailed.
