Footnotes
ROYAL VESSEL reserved along the outside during the initial stages, steadily advanced into a contending position, under some coaxing, came four wide into the stretch to continue the move, took off in earnest when called upon in upper stretch, forged to the front with an eighth to go, then edged away under strong handling, after fending off the lone stretch threat. NO RHYME OR REASON patiently stalked the front runners while deliberately kept off the inside, moved up nearing the quarter pole, squeezed through a narrow opening rivals coming to the three-sixteenths pole, brushing with each foe while making her way past them, sat just off the top one's hind quarters leaving the furlong grounds but could make no additional headway. GOOD WILL bobbled after being lightly bumped just after the start, vied for the lead towards the three path, with the rider applying a firm rating hold the entire way, was brushed by the runner up in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, began to steadily weaken shortly afterwards. SPIRITUAL TUNE made a three wide run to the front, contested the pace slightly off the inside from midway on the backstretch until the upper stretch and gave way. MY LUCKEY PENNEY saved ground until the quarter pole. WORTH A SHOT raced along the outside and was outrun. GOT CLEARANCE bumped lightly with GOOD WILL soon after leaving the gate, made two separate bids for command between rivals during the opening half, only to be denied a clear edge each time, proceeded to race in the three path around the far turn and tired.
