Footnotes
GRANBY GIRL broke slightly to the outside at the start, made light contact with HOUSE OF TOILSOME then kept leaning on that opponent for a few strides, as PROUD SIREN was doing similarly but from much further along the outside, resulting in some minor crowding that ultimately affected the middle breakers in the field, got successfully pulled away and went on to assume a forward position, launched a three wide bid leaving midpoint on the turn and overhauled LADY UTOPIA under her own power, in stark contrast to the driving tactics being used by pilot of the former leader, was almost at the three-sixteenths pole before being let out, scampered away, crossing the wire under brisk encouragement. APPEALETTA hustled leaving the starting gate, was switched over to much light hand urging after achieving the desired positioning, tracked the front runners taking the inside route, got angled outward at the five-sixteenths marker until three wide at the head of the stretch, proved no match. HOUSE ON TOILSOME was bumped at the start by rivals on either side of her, tucked and raced towards the inside in the early going, lacked the necessary stretch response. BLUE SIXTY FOUR lightly bumped from between foes at the start, raced from off the inside, swung four wide into upper stretch, failed to have an impact. PROUD SIREN came in a bit at the start, applied enough pressure along with the winner to be co-responsible for several others getting gently squeezed during the opening stages, was three wide and the whip halfway around the bend, remained no menace. BAYSHORE BLAZE was bumped lightly several times at the start, raced from just off the rail, improved position late on the turn, was two wide and with some momentum turning for home, flattened out. LADY UTOPIA the early pacesetter from the two path, yielded despite being put to a drive, faltered.
