Footnotes
LOVE AND PRIDE shot forth from the starting gate and took control, rated kindly from the inside while setting the opening splits, sailed along for just over six furlongs facing only mild resistance, was put to encouragement at the quarter pole, drew off with authority during the next eighth, remained under hand urging to the wire. BAHIA BEACH lunged at the break, squeezed her way over to the rail early on the first turn, contently tracked the top one from that spot. was asked for run angling outward for the stretch drive, proved no match. BAHAMA BOUND settled along the inside in the early going, was steadied off heels as the second place finisher was being taken over to the rail nearing the end of the homestretch, sat reserved taking the inside route, at times offering some resistance to the rating tactics being applied by the pilot by pulling on the bit, vacated the premises leaving the backstretch, rallied well enough to get up for the show. INDIAN BURN coaxed along prompting the pacesetter from the two path down the backstretch, backed away after completing three-quarters. ORBISTON PARVA three wide on the far turn, folded.
