Footnotes
VICIOUS RAPIDS reserved off the inside, began to rally in earnest when asked for a response in upper stretch, narrowed the gap separating him from the leader during the run through the furlong grounds, then maintaining his momentum, took over just past the sixteenth pole and held sway under hand encouragement to the end. HAVE YOU EVER broke alertly from the gate, crossed over to the rail once sufficiently clear down the backstretch, sped around the turn on an open lead, left the furlong grounds still maintaining a comfortable advantage, felt the top one's presence nearing the sixteenth pole, yielded command shortly thereafter, but continued on willingly to secure the place. THE PRINCE saved ground while unhurried during the initial half, advanced forward after entering the lane while remaining towards the inside, angled outward for the final furlong and finished well while drifting out a bit from left handed encouragement in the late stages. BRILLIANT SON chased the pacesetter from the outside, but proved no match during the stretch run. SUBTITLES raced four wide around the turn and tired. SILENT VALOR pursued the leader from the three path and gave way. WEST COAST FLIER rode the rail, appeared to take a bad step on the turn, was eased and pulled up at the quarter pole, then was escorted by the outrider off the track. There was a Stewards' Inquiry into the incident on the turn before the result was declared official.
