Footnotes
CLUSTER OF STARS broke well and assumed a forward position, underwent a three wide pursuit, ranged up gradually during the run around the bend, made a successful challenge as the widest of the three front runners at the quarter pole, poking a head down at that station, drew out proceeding down the lane, crossing the wire, hand urged. SING DIXIE SING pressed the issue from the two path for the opening half, proved no match for the winner, but held well to secure second. CAUGHT BY YOU argued for control from the inside, came under heavy pressure late on the turn, gave in to it and weakened into the show slot. ELLA'S GONE WEST saved ground and rallied mildly for the last major check. BONITA SONATA chased the front runners and lacked the necessary stretch response. EXPECT GOOD NEWS three wide at the five-sixteenths pole, had no rally. PEGASUS DIAMOND raced from off the inside, maneuvered around the troubled CRAFTY N P. midway on turn, tucked back into two path once safely by that opponent, tired after completing a half. KISSINGINTHEDARK angled out at the quarter pole and was empty. SUNDAY TO REMEMBER was placed briefly along the overland route to elude the fast-fading CRAFTY N P, failed to reach a contending position. JUSTA COUNTRY GIRL rode the rail in the initial stages, swung four wide into upper stretch, had no offering to render. SHERRY BAY G. outrun for a half, drifted three wide into the stretch while tiring. LITTLE SARAH swerved inward at the start, was grabbed hold and quickly put back on course, raced along the outside as a forward factor down the backstretch, had the rider lose both irons in the vicinity of the seven-sixteenths pole, failed to regain them, and helplessly fell back thereafter.
