Footnotes

WILLY BEAMIN grabbed a forward position after getting away in good order, sat under a good hold applying pressure from the three path as the field proceeding their way down the backstretch, was given some rein and drew abreast of ATITLAN by the seven-sixteenths pole, with OUTSIDE LOVE still making her presence felt between the others, raced on nearly even terms before poking a head in front a furlong down the road, edged away, turned for home and got called upon, safely held at bay the runner up during the ensuing furlong, lengthened away the final furlong, kept busy to the end. ATITLAN secured a slight advantage early on the backstretch, was taken over to the rail nearing the half mile pole, cut the initial splits, pressed by two others, surrendered to the winner coming to the five-sixteenths pole, kept within pace of the top one until midstretch before being shaken off for good, then just held on well enough to salvage second. MR. VANTASTIC reserved early from off the inside, picked up interest after completing six furlongs, swung five wide into upper stretch, got straightened away and rallied to take show honors. CAMP TOPRIDGE tracked the front runners while taking the inside route, lacked the needed response. OUR ELI raced three wide on the turn and tired. UNGUIDED MISSILE under the whip from the four path into the stretch, had no rally. WISHINGONASTAR four wide and asked for run at the half mile pole, folded. OUTSIDE LOVE prompted the leader from between foes, fell back steadily despite being asked for a response leaving the midway point on the turn.
