Footnotes
HILL CROSSING was hustled from the starting gate to secure the top, made it over to the rail in time for the run around the opening bend, rated kindly laying down an honest pace with only the mildest of resistance being offered by the closest pursuer, started to kick clear of the competition after going six furlongs, was let out a notch at the three-sixteenths pole, then set down to a hard drive at the furlong marker, remained comfortably in front. SMALL TOWN underwent a ground-saving journey and out kicked a tiring UNBRIDLED DANGER to grab the place. SECRET GETAWAY outrun for three-quarters, swung four wide into the stretch and was along for the show. UNBRIDLED DANGER accompanied the pacesetter from the two path for six furlongs, folded. CONSTABULARY saved ground, was never a menace. THUNDERING ROAR three wide both turns, gave way. MERLIN BAY rode the rail until the quarter pole, trailed.
