Footnotes
EIGHTYFIVE S bobbled at the start, sat well positioned while taking the inside route, gradually advanced towards the leader under her own initiative after entering the turn, chose to remain on hold, rather than go through a narrow opening inside approaching the head of the stretch, steadied when put in tight quarters nearing the three-sixteenths pole, found ample clearance a few strides later when tiring pacesetter began to drift outward, shot up the rail under good handling to assume command in the furlong grounds, then turned back FORT CARILLON under a drive. FORT CARILLON reserved off the rail, was fanned four wide into the lane, loomed momentarily at the furlong marker, but was outfinished. TOGA TIGER rated stalking the leader from the three path, came up empty during the stretch drive. ECLECTIC quickly on the lead, showed the way from the two path, jumped over an indentation in the mud while attempting to shy away from it at the five-eighths pole, maintained the lead until turning for home, steadily tired thereafter. BARONESS raced four wide and folded after going a half. CARLYN DARLYN was never involved.
