Footnotes
SARATOGA LULABY dueled three wide for six furlongs, shook loose in upper stretch and drew off. ALY'S WHEAT was rated just off the pace, rallied inside leaving the turn and finished willingly to best the others. FREDDY THE CAP pressed three wide into upper stretch and held well to gain a share. WILLSBORO POINT dueled along the rail into upper stretch and tired. THE SHAUGHRAUN raced in traffic on the far turn, saved ground leaving the turn and finished evenly. COMMISSIONER CHRIS raced four wide for six furlongs and lacked a rally. STORMY SUCCESS steadied after breaking slowly, swung six wide entering the stretch and failed to menace. ONE OF THE BEST chased between horses to the turn and faded. FRENCH TRANSITION was never a factor. COUNTING HOUSE saved ground and tired.
