Footnotes
ROBERT'S BREACH came inward leaving the starting gate, bumping with CAPTAIN GOODENOUGH and knocking that rival into ANAPHYLAXIS, raced briefly as a team with the runner up before grabbing a clear advantage, soon tucked over to the rail, responded well to the rating tactics being applied by the rider, with STREET SWAGG in close proximity from the two path all the while, likewise not being asked for run by his pilot, was still in control, a body length to the good nearing the three-sixteenths pole when asked for run for the initial time, failed to shake free of what proved to be the only threat throughout the running of the event, drifted out, especially when put to stick work left handed, held on safely. STREET SWAGG rated in the two path until the quarter pole, gained ground gradually on the winner in the stretch en route to being second best. ANAPHYLAXIS got bumped at the start, saved ground and rallied to be a non-threatening third. READTHEBYLINE stacked five wide departing the backstretch, was under a drive by midpoint, came up empty. SAY MR. SANDMAN urged three wide into the stretch, flattened out. CAPTAIN GOODENOUGH bumped at the start, was placed five wide at the head of the lane, lacked the needed response. M P JOE took the inside route, was put to a hard drive down the lane, failed to menace. KEYALY outrun for nearly a half while off the inside, went on to improve position past weak and tired ones. EASY STREET three wide on the turn, tired. FIVE FREEDOMS rode the rail, was under some kind of encouragement almost from the get-go, never got close. COUNTKNICKERBOCKER gave chase three wide, was under a drive by the three-eighths pole, folded. ECSTATIC CAT departed the backstretch from the four path, was through after going a half. PATRIOTTOWN faded off a ground-saving journey.
