Footnotes
LIGHTS OUT LISA raced three wide around the turn, was pushed out an additional path swinging into the stretch, rallied in earnest when asked, gained ground readily during the ensuing furlong, loomed boldly, maintained the momentum to take over near the sixteenth pole and edged clear. LITTLE MISS JULIEN off to a good beginning, grabbed control soon after the start, got engaged by GENTLE RIDE from the outside at the half mile pole, vied with that foe before shaking free nearing the head of the stretch, responded willingly once called upon, reached the eighth pole with only heads separating the leading threesome, dug in stubbornly, finally relinquished the front in deep stretch, but continued on gamely to garner place honors. WITCHESOFWESTFIELD within range from the two path during the opening half, rallied mildly for the show. BOBBI O. patiently tracked the front runners from the pocket under a good hold, waited briefly behind a wall of three rivals nearing the quarter pole, wasted no time when an opportunity to vacate the inside appeared, splitting rivals just past the quarter pole, was in the thick of things battling for the lead when she took a bad step in upper lane, bobbling as a result, recovered and kept coming, then weakened during the final sixteenth. CAT GRACE off the inside, was no threat. GENTLE RIDE disputed the pace from the two path for a half and folded. DEAR CONTENDER had the rider lose the irons right after the break.
