Footnotes

DOWNTOWN HOTTIE broke well and moved up to assume a forward position, closed an early gap from the pacesetter soon after entering the backstretch, kept track of that opponent from the outside and under a good hold, continued to bide time, moved when ready nearing the quarter pole, was roused in upper stretch, went by to take charge by midstretch then dug in with good determination to preserve the decision, being kept busy to the end. AURIC GIRL raced along the outside, within striking distance and rating kindly, availed of the chance to take over the three path midway on the far turn, when BACK TO HURSTLAND drifted out just enough to create the opportunity, spun from there into the lane, and came home with good energy to garner place honors. RUNNING IN CIRCLES chomped on the bit making her way to the front along the straightaway approach to the opening bend, tucked along the rail, showed the way under the watchful eye of the winner for nearly three-quarters, felt that opponent's presence nearing the quarter pole, offered good resistance after being called upon. yielded shortly before reaching the eighth pole when no longer able to keep pace, but held well to the wire to earn the show. WINGED BANDIT saved ground until the quarter pole and finished willingly en route for the last major share. MONTESSORI along the inside, made no serious bids. BACK TO HURSTLAND underwent a three to four wide journey and tired. NO IMAGINATION swung four wide into the stretch and lacked the needed closing punch. GRANDE ROJA narrowly missed brushing the right side of the gate, raced off the inside and gave way. SIMPLE WESTERN took the inside route and failed to menace. SARATOGA BLITZ went three wide around the first turn, gradually worked her way to the inside for the subsequent one, cut the corner under a drive but had little left to offer.
