Footnotes
SOVEREIGN DEFAULT took up chase from the get go travelling in the two path, being lightly coaxed along in the early stages, ranged up to draw alongside the pacesetter after receiving stiffer handling, took over a few strides past the three-sixteenths pole, edged away during the run through the furlong grounds, then maintained a safe winning margin to the end. STAY THIRSTY hustled leaving the starting gate, was urged along to keep pace with the front runners, proved no match for the top one during the stretch drive, but continued on willingly to be clearly second best. PUNSTER raced three wide, displayed greenness in the lane en route for show honors. SCOVILLE grabbed the early lead, set the pace towards the inside with a pair of rivals giving chase, offered brief resistance when confronted by the eventual winner, readily succumbed and steadily tired thereafter. AIR SUPPORT was content to bring up the back of the pack, unhurried until the quarter pole, was in the process of swinging three wide into the stretch, when DAX crossed over, causing the rider to check, recovered from that incident to out finish weak ones, then was lightly ridden out nearly a sixteenth of a mile past the finish line. DAX raced along the outside, was taken even wider turning for home, impeding AIR SUPPORT, had no solid stretch reseponse. NUCKSER taken hold early, saved ground and tired.
