Footnotes

I'M STEPPIN' IT UP assumed the role of stalker after the start, was put to a good hold prompting the pacesetter from the two path, ranged up late on the turn, got asked for run and bid in earnest, drifted outward, initially under right handed stick work, fighting his way to the lead during the run through the furlong grounds, taking SAN PABLO along for a short ride, dug in well when the runner up loomed boldly with about a sixteenth to go to preserve the decision. BOLD WARRIOR broke behind the field, after coming out of the starting gate awkwardly, was placed to a snug hold en route to rejoining the pack, sat reserved two wide proceeding around the turn, was guided outward leaving the five-sixteenths pole and hand urged from the four path into the stretch, gained ground readily throughout the stretch run to secure second. SAN PABLO forwardly placed three wide, was asked for some run by the five-sixteenths pole, got carried out by the errant winner during the initial portion of the stretch drive, needed more to shoot by the top one and had to eventually settle for the show. BOUND BY HUMOR showed the way from the inside for six furlongs, succumbed once seriously challenged turning for home and weakened steadily thereafter. TURBO COMPRESSOR saved ground until the quarter pole and had no rally.
