Footnotes
TUG OF WAR took the inside route, was under some urging almost from the get-go, cut the corner and commenced to rally in earnest, altered course to the outside in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, rolled by the embattled front runners in the final seventy yards for the decision. BIZARROWORLD got hooked up in a protracted speed duel with LITTLE DALE, from the three path, finally poked a head in front during the later stages of the run through the furlong grounds, was still locked in combat with the aforementioned rival when the winner went by zooming by, dug in tenaciously thereafter to preserve the place. LITTLE DALE took up residence in the two path, got involved in duel with the runner up once THUNDER HARBOR backed away quickly nearing the end of the backstretch, continued to go at it head to head to head with BIZARROWORLD to the end en route for show honors. SPORTSWRITER four wide and set down by the five-sixteenths pole, lacked the necessary stretch response. PURE GRIT three wide, paused coming to the quarter pole, failed to fire when called upon in upper stretch. COALITION placed five wide by the three-sixteenths pole, lacked a kick. MISSISSIPPI DUEL attempted to reach a contending position with a four wide run on the turn, was two paths wider by upper stretch, flattened out. HOWIE AND THE CAT saved ground, was urged on the turn but made no real headway on the front runners. THUNDER HARBOR sparred briefly and folded.
