Footnotes
SAGINAW patiently prompted the pace from the two path, went by an energetically-handled BEAUTYINTHEPULPIT to take over soon after departing the backstretch, waited until the vicinity of three-sixteenths pole to get asked for some kind of response, gave it, going the rest of the way under a light drive, with only an occasional left handed stroke from the whip interrupting a hand ride. FRIEND OR FOE away in good order, was allowed to settle into stride, chased three wide on the turn, left the five-sixteenths pole having already been put to solid encouragement, closed in late on the winner. JOHANNESBURG SMILE saved ground and proved no match for the top twosome. BEAUTYINTHEPULPIT heads apart with JOHANNESBURG SMILE leaving the chute, edged away shortly before completing the initial split, had the top one latch in short order, yielded to that unasked rival while put to significant urging himself, tired.
