Footnotes
CASH FOR CLUNKERS came out at the start responding to her inside rival who did the same, set an uncontested pace while in hand, was let out a notch nearing the three-sixteenths, drew off readily in the final furlong being mostly hand ridden, was geared down late, a much the best winner. ENRICHMENT bided time early on while in hand, contently tracked the pace three wide in the turn, was roused at the top of the lane and rallied for the place safely while having no chance with the winner. SCOOTLES broke sharply, came out slightly at the start, had the rider correct her before any contact was made with her outside rival, got taken in hand and rated back off the pace, saved ground throughout the turn down along the rail, angled out three paths to be four wide at the quarter pole, came under a drive at that station, offered a mild bid to garner the show. TIME MARCHES ON under a loose hold tracking the front throughout, came under a long drive that commenced near the five-sixteenths, faded steadily during the run through the furlong grounds while being well clear for the last major share. SHANDREA was bumped at the start lightly by CASH FOR CLUNKERS causing her to lean on WESTSIDE SINGER, got corrected by the rider, chased from the two path around the turn and offered no response. WESTSIDE SINGER squeezed at the start when pressure coming from CASH FOR CLUNKERS caused SHANDREA to push her into ENRICHMENT, recovered to chase throughout while inside, got called upon just past the five-sixteenths and offered little. MARY COLE settled towards the rear, came under urging while three wide in the turn and was no menace.
