Footnotes

TERMINUS momentarily fought with resistance on the bit in reaction to the pilot's grip on the reins nearing the half mile pole, flip flopped paths with LITTLE DALE after that foe tucked over to the rail at that station, took up the chase on the embattled pair a short up ahead on the turn, turned for home three wide and was immediately put to hand encouragement, hooked up in a lively duel with the runner up from the furlong marker that lasted for about a sixteenth, gained control and kicked clear. MISSILEWHILEUWORK latched on to UNDRGROUNDREGULATR nearing the end of the backstretch, went at it head to head with that rival for a good portion of the way around the turn, shook free only to come under the gun from the eventual winner shortly afterwards, sparred for another sixteenth before backing away, but continued on in willing fashion to earn the place. LITTLE DALE sent over to the rail at the crown of the turn, got outfinished. UNDRGROUNDREGULATR quickly grabbed the early advantage and was guided over to the rail, raced under a firm hold by the pilot in the initial stages, dueled on nearly terms with the second place finisher for much of the way on the turn, got shaken off and steadily weakened. BLACK ACE was no menace. DIXIE'S CAT CAN DO chased the pace combatants three wide on the turn, commenced the stretch drive a bit wider and tired. TURN UP THE MUSIC off the inside, swung five wide into the stretch with little left to offer.
