Footnotes

ODE TO SAMI unhurried in the early going, picked up interest coming to the end of the turn, fanned five wide into upper stretch, closed in on the leader, had that opponent drift outward to be directly alongside in deep stretch, out dueled that foe to get up late. NATALIE VICTORIA established control soon after the start, rated kindly from the inside on an open lead for the opening three-quarters, went a couple of additional jumps after turning for home before getting called upon, still clung to a healthy lead with an eighth to go, began to drift outward until right next to the eventual winner, yielded and had to settle for the place. BELLE GALLANTEY four wide at the five-sixteenths pole, lacked the needed response. SHEZA HEARTBREAKER left the pocket under urging in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, flattened out. SAGE D'ORO stumbled badly at the start, raced at a considerable distance from off the inside and tired. GLORIETTA BAY chased from the outside and gave way. E Z PASSER tucked along the inside coming to the half mile pole, rode the rail, launched a bid once SHEZA HEARTBREAKER abandoned the inside route leaving the midway point, kept it up until late in the furlong grounds, arrived at the sixteenth pole choppygaited, finished the race under a protective hold, was pulled up quickly and walked off the track.
