Footnotes
WANDERIN BOY gained the lead soon after the break, raced near the rail, controlled the pace under careful handling, then increased his advantage in the late going under energetic hand encouragement. HALF OURS broke in front, allowed WANDERIN BOY the lead from the inside, tracked that one three or four wide, offered a bid nearing the stretch but couldn't sustain the needed momentum as second best. STUDENT COUNCIL bobbled sharply at the break, raced three or four wide and failed to offer a closing account. PERFECT DRIFT settled near the inside early, eased out two or three wide leaving the second turn to make a minor run but failed to continue. BROTHER BOBBY followed the leaders four wide, raced within striking distance to the final quarter and flattened out. SMOKEYJONESSUTTON, five wide much of the trip, never threatened with the rider dropping his whip at the five-sixteenths pole. SUMMER BOOK raced in contention near the inside to the final quarter and weakened thereafter.
