Footnotes
LISA T. tracked the pace from the two path, took command midway on the turn under her own courage, swung three wide into the lane under a drive, edged away steadily, was kept busy in the final sixteenth and held off a determined foe in the last strides. MALIBU HOLIDAY saved ground throughout, rode the rail under some encouragement at the quarter pole, was forced to wait at the three-sixteenths with no clear path to rally when in behind rivals, angled out in the vicinity of the eighth pole, now fully engaged by the rider and willingly rallied to just miss. SCENIC GULCH broke in at the start and was corrected, swung four wide at the top of the lane, displayed a good kick to procure the show. BE WITH ME fought the bit early resisting the rating tactics of the rider, was forced to check midway on the first turn when in tight while rank, settled down from there on, came under a drive midway on the far turn, offered up a mild bid for the last major share. JIDDY showed the front along the inside under restraint, was asked for run nearing the quarter pole and weakened steadily thereafter. RACE PALACE chased the pace three wide, came under a long drive on the turn and faded. DARLING BRIDEZILLA stumbled badly at the start, settled towards the rear and gave no response when called upon.
