Footnotes

PARC DES PRINCES (BRZ) established the front, dueled in hand from the two path, edged away midway on the turn when his closest pursuer backed out, maintained his advantage and edged away in the final furlong safe. MERLIN BAY three wide throughout, came under encouragement nearing the quarter pole, steadily rallied through the furlong grounds while drifting in throughout despite the rider's attempts to keep a straight course. MACHO MUCHACHO jostled early between FRENCH TRANSITION and RAECINJASIN on the first turn, made steady progress through the turn, came under coaxing moving into prominence by the eighth pole, angled inside at that juncture and rallied mildly, was taken in hand in the final strides when MERLIN BAY drifted in within the shadow of the wire. RAECINJASIN chased four wide throughout, came under coaxing at the five-sixteenths, rallied mildly for the last major share. CONSTABULARY bore out around the first turn despite the rider's attempts to keep him on line, swung four wide into the lane and rallied belatedly passed tiring rivals. JITALIAN vied between rivals for a half and tired. GIOPI (IRE) swung four wide at the quarter pole and gave no response. FRENCH TRANSITION three wide both turns, offered no kick. THE VIN MAN saved ground throughout and was no factor. FIRST GOLD dueled for a half and gave way. There was a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on MERLIN BAY in the stretch before the result was declared official.
