Footnotes
THUNDERCLAP NEWMAN moved inside early, stalked a forced pace, challenged outside into the stretch, drew out from mid stretch. DADDY'S VISION opened a short clear lead early, had increasingly more outside pressure on the backstretch, turned back his main pace rival in early stretch, was taken on by the winner, couldn't stay with that one. WILD PARTY stalked off the rail, advanced inside on the final turn. TIZZYS DESERT STAR, well placed off the rail, made a mild bid between horses into the final turn, faded. SOCKS ARE UP stalked wide, pressed four-wide into the final turn, tired. MOVED TO PERMA, inside early, forced the issue outside from the backstretch, gave way in early stretch.
