Footnotes
KING ANDREW pursued the pacesetter from the outside, nearly reached even terms with that rival late on the turn, but was successfully repulsed, took up the chase again after entering the lane, gained gradually and proved best just before the finish line under a dive. CIRES set the pace towards the inside, was briefly confronted by KING ANDREW as that pair neared the quarter pole, spurted away after being let out a notch, left the furlong grounds with a comfortable advantage, then was overhauled by the top one a couple jumps prior to the wire. BAD DEBT within striking distance for a half, closed willingly late. SENOR ENRICO raced in midpack and displayed a mild rally under encouragement. COACH BUTTS was no threat. BATON ROUGE was never in contention. KARAKORUM TORNADO was outrun.
