Footnotes
ROYAL BLESSING sat reserved near the two path for the run around the bend, turned for home and was forced to remain on hold, lacking suitable options from upper to midstretch, came upon enough daylight between rivals under development nearing the furlong marker, was given his cue and eagerly drove through, found his best stride departing the furlong grounds, collared the runner up in the final seventy yards to grab a slim advantage then dug in well under good handling to preserve it. MR ROSENTHAL sat perched three wide off a pace dispute, rider atop with a firm grip on the reins, spun into the stretch and got called upon, hooked up a spirited tussle with IRISH HUMOR, inched by to take over in deep stretch only to get nailed himself prior to the wire. IRISH HUMOR disputed the pace from the outside, doing so with the rider holding back in reserve for the opening half, battled hard for the lead from upper to deep stretch, weakened slightly once displaced by the second place finisher. GOSSIP COLUMN made light contact with NORTHERN TRIPP leaving the start, tucked over to the rail down the backstretch, got eased outward just past the three-eighths pole, continued to angle to the outside, settling to be about three wide at the top of the lane, finished with good, but belatedly energy to grab the last major check. NORTHERN TRIPP brushed with GOSSIP COLUMN, took the inside route for most of the way around the turn, paused in hand while cutting the corner into the lane, was maneuvered to steer around a tiring rival coming to the eighth pole, flattened out in the final sixteenth. ALL ZIPPED UP placed six wide at the head of the stretch, went on to improve position. NEWTON CRESCENT loosely tracked the front runners from the pocket, found room and angled outward at the quarter pole, failed to fire when called upon. SENIOR STATESMAN argued for command from the inside until the furlong grounds and gave way. IRON PLAY bumped at the start, swung four wide into the stretch, had no kick. LIFE OF THE CITY lacked needed response. ADRIATIC SPIRIT displayed brief foot. NATIVE BREEZE bumped at the start, trailed.
