Footnotes
C C'S PAL emerged from a tight grouping at the break with the early advantage, was gradually guided over in the direction of the inside, making it along the rail before reaching the end of the backstretch, continued along on the turn, with the rider still holding something in reserve, spun into the stretch and got released from the rating hold, lost little if any of her advantage during the ensuing furlong, but with the runner up now having secured the room needed to take a run at her bearing down full of run directly to the outside, reached the sixteenth pole on dead even terms, matched strides with NICOLE H, with only head bobs determining who was in front, inched away in the last seventy yards and dug in stubbornly to remain in the clear. NICOLE H secured the pocket soon after the start, tracked the winner from there, rider sitting aboard with a firm hold, continued along on the same scenario until the stretch drive, tipped slightly off the inside in upper stretch, idled just off the top one's heels under good handling until a short distance from the eighth pole, altered course and almost instantaneously took off in earnest, reached the sixteenth pole in a practical dead heat, perhaps traded head bobs for the lead during the next several jumps, fell back slightly in deep stretch and had to settle for being second best. SHE'S CHEEKY chased three wide and got out finished. BELLE OF THE HALL settled along the inside, was put to some hand encouragement midway on the turn, was angled outward from the five-sixteenths pole into the four path by the head of the stretch, lacked the needed response. KID KATE placed four wide and asked for a response at the five-sixteenths pole, came up empty. DONTBESHY I'LL BUY rated early while prompting the winner, folded.
