Footnotes

SAILMATE reserved along the rail down the backstretch, was guided to the outside at the half mile pole, ranged up during the run around the bend, turned for home three wide, was set down to a hard drive after settling into upper stretch, fought his way past the leader with about a sixteenth remaining and edged away, being kept to the task at hand. SOUTHBEACHSANDY was four wide departing the backstretch, followed along with THE NOZ to shoot past a pair of exhaustive duelers soon after entering the turn, went after the new leader late on the turn, headed into stretch holding the advantage, remained in front during the ensuing furlong, wasn't able to resist the top one as that pair hit the sixteenth pole, but had enough left to secure second. BIGGER IS BETTOR moved up on the turn and was along for the show. THE NOZ stalked an ongoing pace dispute, pounced upon that tiring duo from the three path at the seven-sixteenths pole, readily going by, gained no respite himself as the runner up advanced to offer his challenge a furlong later, offered brief resistance before relinquishing the lead and steadily tired thereafter. ARTIE LUVSTO PARTY taken in hand at the break, failed to menace. GOOD TO BE ME hustled from the starting gate, dueled from the inside until the seven-sixteenths pole and faltered. HERE COMES VINNY was never in the hunt. QUIET POWER urged from the gate to a forward position, sparred with GOOD TO BE ME from the two path until the seven-sixteenths pole before giving way.
