Footnotes
RUNWEISER went head to head with VIRTUES UNDER FIRE while taking the inside route, raced on even terms for five furlongs before shaking free, came under assault from a fresher pair of foes nearing the quarter pole, dug in stubbornly under a drive, still clung to a narrow lead with a furlong to go, then finished with relentless courage to prove best. SLIGHT FEVER saved ground until the three-eighths pole, swung three wide en route to making a challenge for the lead, battled with two fellow rivals from the outside during the run the run through the furlong grounds, tried hard to go past the top one, but wasn't up to the task and had to settle for place honors. D'ARGENTO off slowly, was unhurried during the opening stages, advanced steadily into contention on the embattled twosome up front from the outside leaving the half mile pole, steadied, altering course closer to the inside midway around the bend, sat well positioned off the inside, made a bid approaching the quarter pole, vied between rivals during the stretch drive, remained on nearly terms, before being out gamed during the final sixteenth. CENTRIPITAL unhurried for over five furlongs, came four wide into the lane, tired. OMMADON'S REIGN saved ground and was no factor. RAPPAPORT had a wide trip and gave way. PULL THE CHOCKS stumbled badly at the start and was outrun. VIRTUES UNDER FIRE battled from the two path for five furlongs before backing off.
