Footnotes

BAILEY PARK made light contact with TOP POSITION leaving the starting gate, moved up into a forward position soon afterwards, left the backstretch three wide, disputed the pace from between rivals from the seven-sixteenths pole until mid lane, asked for some run as were the majority of front runners, grabbed a narrow advantage at the quarter pole and got asked for his best, forged his way to a clearer lead during the run through the furlong grounds, extended it, driving. THE GREAT BANDINI broke on top and quickly settled into the two path, reached the end of the backstretch and came under increased pressure from another pair, with an additional twosome giving chase from a slight distance off the front running trio, was put to some urging while doing battle on the turn, appeared to fall back a sliver late on the turn and was set down even harder at that juncture, got shaken off by the furlong marker but continued onward willingly for the place. THE MIXER got off slowly after making solid contact with the left side of the starting gate, sat parked along the overland route just off the embattled threesome throughout the turn, entered the stretch and although never posing a danger to the first two finishers, came home with good courage to earn the show. TOP POSITION got brushed at the start, reached the end of the backstretch as a forward factor, raced four wide while contending for command with two others from just past the half mile pole until the end of the furlong grounds before weakening. STAR WALK placed in the three path at the three-eighths pole, had no impact. NORTHERN HERO failed to menace. MIDNIGHT MICHAEL took the inside route until the quarter pole, urged along on the turn to keep pace, was taken safely around the stricken rival in upper stretch while appearing to having little to offer. KARMA SHIELD settled into midpack, chased the ongoing pace dispute from off the inside, ducked over to the rail in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, was checked off heels shortly afterwards, angled four wide in upper stretch, had just completed this maneuver when he took bad steps and broke down, was pulled up and subsequently humanely put down on the track.
