Footnotes
KATE'S HOLIDAY broke out and a bit slow, remained void of speed for six furlongs in the back, moved out, came four wide when advancing late in the final turn, challenged while widest nearing the furlong marker, edged away late under steady handling. CAROLTEEN away in good order, settled in the second flight off the inside, three wide and inside the winner when moving closer exiting the final turn, challenged between rivals a furlong out, could not match strides with the winner late, proved game for the place. STRIPE E away well, cleared to the inside before a quarter, set a soft set of early fractions while in hand, continued to rate through the final turn, responded briefly when challenged nearing midstretch, also failed to match the winner the final sixteenth, outfinished for the place. CASHMERE KITTEN unhurried early along the inside, moved slightly closer into the far turn, roused while continuing to save ground in late in the second turn, moved out a bit for the drive and went evenly to the wire in lacking a serious late kick. ERICAFROMAMERICA pressured the soft pace while off the inside, asked along when still forcing the issue midway on the final turn, weakened in the drive. MISS ANFIELD well back off the pace while along the inside, lacked a rally in the drive. AFORTUNADA AYALA was finished early, well beaten.
