Footnotes
SAILORS SONG settled off the pace about the three path, started his drive leaving the quarter pole, steadily advanced for the lead near the sixteenth pole and drew clear nearing the wire. SOMETHING GAINED quickly took over for position inside, rated the pace from that point to the head of the lane, was pressured from there though outfinished the final sixteenth. I'M DANCING TOO , unhurried in mid track, bid toward the quarter pole and bled while finishing well. STAY FOCUSED stalked the pace while off the rail but lacked a sufficient stretch response. CIRCLING THE BASES was never a factor. BULLSEYE BOY steadied early and never factored. PLEASANT FOX saved ground.
