Footnotes
SPRING TO THE SKY contently stalked the pacesetter from the two path, moved up late on the turn but failed to increase his presence, got let out after entering the stretch, was unable to cut into the leader's margin during the run through the furlong grounds despite being asked for much more than than the leader was at this stage, closed in more readily thereafter, hitched up to the runner up with about a sixteenth remaining, forged his way to the top a short distance from the wire, and edged away under a hand drive. SUM OF THE PARTS away without incident at the start, quickly established control, set lively splits under a good hold from the rider and facing only light resistance, remained unperturbed from upper to past the three-sixteenths pole as the eventual winner tried to narrow in, before getting set down, had the top one draw alongside at the sixteenth pole, saw the margin dwindle down in steadfast fashion and got caught a few strides before reaching the wire. ARTEST underwent a three wide pursuit, got asked for a response in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, mustered up a mild response en route for the show. BANNER BILL out a step at the break, was grabbed hold, raced along the outside, came four wide into the stretch and rallied to secure the last major check. MANLY saved ground throughout and lacked the necessary stretch response. SPORTSWRITER tucked into the two path nearing the half mile pole, had no rally. JUST SAYIN off the inside, tired. ONE SOCK DOWN made inconsequential contact with ONE SOCK DOWN leaving the gate, was rated in the pocket until the quarter pole, faltered.
