KING DAVID patiently prompted the pacesetter from the two path, was let out a notch and steadily advanced towards that foe leaving the half mile pole, was only a long neck behind as the pair completed three-quarters, remained on nearly even terms during the initial portion of the stretch drive, responded positively when given his cue in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole and kicked away, dug in well to turn back a mild threat coming from the next two finishers, completing the last sixteenth under a lighter drive than before. SEE ME PROUD saved ground on the opening bend, was placed two wide down the backstretch and remained there for the rest of the way to the quarter pole, got set down for the stretch run and came home willingly to procure the place. COLOSSAL GIFT bounced lightly from between rivals leaving the starting gate, bobbled soon afterwards, settled near the rear of the pack, began to pick up interest late on the far turn, left the five-sixteenths pole three wide and being asked for some run, came home with good energy near the middle of the course en route for the show. HARDROCKER underwent a three wide journey and held on reasonably well to the end to finish on the board. DUBAI TIME saved ground throughout. SPLENDIFEROUS stalked the pacesetter from the two path, had no rally. BACK AWAY sat pocketed while tracking the front runners, vacated the premises a few strides before reaching the end of the far turn, was already under strong encouragement turning for home, remained a prominent factor for an additional furlong before flattening out. THE MIXER got bumped lightly several times at the start of the race, went three wide on both turns, folded. BIG CREEK bumped lightly a few times at the start, saved ground and was never in contention. WINTER NOW was put to a strong hold and guided inward after leaving the starting gate, showed the way from near the rail under the watchful eye of the eventual winner, had that rival crank up the pressure coming to the five-sixteenths pole and was soon let out in response to the challenge, yielded soon afterwards, remained prominently placed until mid lane then gave way. MYHORSEOFCOURSE off the inside early, was down along the rail by quarter pole, trailed throughout.
