Footnotes
LUBASH needed only a few strides out of the gate to establish command, set moderate fractions,along the inside, uncontested and being well rated, spurted away from the competition nearing the end of the run around the second bend, still not being asked for his best, was put to encouragement soon after entering the stretch, with LIGHTHOUSE SOUND gearing up the stretch run as well, lost little of his lead from the head of the stretch to the eighth pole, then fended off the aforementioned rival while being kept busy. LIGHTHOUSE SOUND was taken in hand soon after the break, content to track the leader from the pocket, continued along on the ground-saving journey, under a good hold for nearly three-quarters, was kept on reserve as the pacesetter opened up a comfortable lead coming to the quarter pole, angled outward in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole while commencing to rally, made no significant gains during the rest of the run through the furlong grounds, closed in gradually thereafter, but had to settle for place honors. ASPHALT bumped at the start, was placed off the rail but within range, was asked for run nearing the top of the stretch, altered course to the inside at the three-sixteenths pole, taking over the rail route recently abandoned by the runner up, finished with good energy en route for the show. RAGING WIT was taken in hand after being bumped at the break, sat reserved towards the back of the pack, angled outward in upper stretch and displayed a good late kick down the outside of the course. AIKENITE underwent a three to four wide journey and had no rally. NORDIC TRUCE accompanied the pacesetter under a firm hold from the outside until the five-sixteenths pole, came up empty for the stretch drive. BEST ACTOR was bumped after bobbling at the start, saved ground, but failed to reach contention. RADIOHEAD (GB) was bumped after bobbling at the start, assumed a forward position soon afterwards, staked the pacesetter from the outside being coaxed along, was through after completing six furlongs.
