Footnotes
THE PRIZE FIGHTER broke alertly and took command early, had the runner up crank up the pressure upon entering the turn, raced heads apart with that rival from along the inside during most of the way around the bend, was the first of the pair to have the rider to commit to some kind of encouragement, doing so turning for home, almost a full furlong before the rider of READYTODEFER matched tactics, fell back by about a neck or so a short distance past the eighth pole, staged a good comeback to re claim the lead, albeit by only a slim margin, then dug in gamely to preserve it. READYTODEFER moved up leaving the half mile pole to hitch up to the winner, contested the pace from the two path while racing as a team with THE PRIZE FIGHTER, undergoing it all while being well rated, was still locked up eye to eye with the previously mentioned rival turning for home,got put to light hand urging from upper to midstretch, arrived at the eighth pole leading by a sliver, having been unable to shake off a pesky foe, was switched over to a drive yet lost the advantage nonetheless. TUG OF WAR stumbled at the start to get away last, chased the front runners three wide on the turn, left the five-sixteenths pole under a full drive, proved no match for the top twosome. RECURRING DREAM broke outward, was pulled off the nearest foe but not before making inconsequential contact, raced from off the inside, came four wide into the stretch and went on to improve position by going past weak and tired ones. GAME TOKEN tracked a pair while taking the inside route, was already being asked for run cutting the corner into the stretch, had no rally. I'LL STAKE U raced along the outside and failed to muster up a stretch response.
