Footnotes
TUTTI VA BENE well placed along the outside, was asked for run approaching the head of the stretch, closed in relentlessly on the front runners, wrested the lead at the sixteenth pole then dug in stubbornly under good handling to fend off the fast-closing runner up. I DREAMT I WAS outrun for nearly six furlongs, fanned five wide into the stretch and displayed a good kick to miss, LAKESIDE CHAPEL three wide around the second turn, angled outward to eventually be the widest of all in upper stretch and came home with a good finish down the outside of the course en route for the show. DOWNTOWN HOTTIE hit the gate at the start, was unhurried down the backstretch, steadily advanced into contention from the outside with the rider attempting to keep something in reserve, finished with good energy after turning for home to grab the last major share. GRACE AND COURAGE forwardly placed three to four wide around both turns, took charge after entering the stretch, offered good resistance before being displaced in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole. BRETTON WOODS chased three wide and tired. CENTRINA saved ground and lacked the needed bid. ROYAL RHETORIC vied inside for the lead and faltered. RUMORS OF GLORY three wide entering the backstretch, was guided one path closer to the inside by midpoint on the backstretch, remained within range, failed to rally after being called upon in the stretch. SPIRIT OF ROSE a forward factor three wide around both turns, folded after completing three-quarters. A WORD TO THE WISE contested the pace from the two path and gave way.
