Footnotes
BEAUTYINTHEPULPIT assumed the role of stalker leaving the starting gate, was rated along keeping a watchful eye on the leader from the two path, was given some rein and drew abreast of SOUTHBEACHSANDY in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, went head to head with that opponent with neither pilot asking the mount for much run, turned for home still on nearly even terms and was asked for a response, as was the second place finisher, inched away to the front during the run through the furlong grounds, then kicked well clear in the final sixteenth, crossing the wire hand urged. SOUTHBEACHSANDY off to an alert beginning, was taken over to the inside once sufficiently clear, set the splits, well rated and with the top one parked just off his hind quarters, was put to the test by that rival late on the turn, entered the stretch with little separating them and was given his cue, fell back slightly when unable to keep pace during the ensuing furlong, continued on well though to be second best. TAP ATTACK four wide, was put to a prolonged drive but proved no match for the top pair. PEGASUS ENA made a rail run on the turn only to flatten out. MAKE NOTE three wide departing the backstretch, was no threat. WHATEVERITTAKES underwent a three wide pursuit, began to back away before completing three-quarters. STORMY SUCCESS was urged on the turn, ducked over to the rail at midpoint and tired.
