Footnotes

WESTERN ARISTOCRAT put to a snug hold leaving the starting gate, had no trouble establishing control, crawled on the front taking the inside route, undisturbed throughout a soft opening half, maintained a clear lead as the tempo quickened during the run around the far turn, got let out entering the stretch, with the runner up poised just off the hind quarters, responded positively when given his cue, lengthened the advantage during the ensuing furlong and beyond, crossing the wire under hand encouragement. BRILLIANT SPEED accompanied the pacesetter from the outside, under a good hold until the quarter pole, turned for home and was set down, failed to keep pace and had to settle for the place. WILKINSON contently tracked the front runners, placed at a slight distance from off the hedge, made a sharp three wide angle into the stretch and rallied with good energy to secure the show. TOP SURPRIZE raced three wide around both turns, lacked the necessary stretch response. SKY BLAZER underwent a three to four wide journey, failed to response when asked for run at the three-eighths pole. CASINO HOST saved ground throughout and was no menace. SEAL COVE reserved off the inside for the opening six furlongs, was already being roused spinning from the three path into the stretch, had no offering to render.
