Footnotes
TICONDERO patiently tracked the leader towards the inside, angled while making a three wide bid coming to the three-eighths pole, took over during the ensuing furlong with the rider still sitting on hold, was let out after turning for home, then held off the lone stretch threat to preserve the decision. SHOW TRIAL unhurried for nearly five furlongs, angled four wide into the stretch, commenced his rally after being straightened away and finished willingly to grab the place. RETRIEVER took command, was rated slightly off the inside on a loosely-contested lead, failed to stave off the top one's challenge from midpoint despite being much energetically handled, and steadily tired after completing three-quarters. SHOTGUN BANDIT accompanied the pacesetter while well off the inside, found himself strung out four deep after the top one angled outward at the three-eighths pole, folded after going six furlongs. NEXT DAY was taken over to the inside at the three-eighths pole, in effect trading places with TICONDERO, cut the corner into the lane, having been asked for run since the five-sixteenths pole, but had no serious stretch offering to give. DONTQUITYOURDAYJOB raced within range under a firm hold during the initial half, was called upon for some run after entering the turn but could make no headway on the front runners. ELDER SKATESMAN lumbered along in the back of the pack, being one-paced during the opening half, showed more speed during the run around the bend, making up some of the earlier deficit, swung four wide into the stretch, only to quickly flatten out.
