Footnotes

FASTUS CACTUS grabbed a clear advantage soon after the start, angled sharply and took up residence in the two path just before reaching the half mile pole, cut the fractions on a loosely-contested lead with the rider keeping something in reserve, maintained a healthy margin from the closest pursuer during the ensuing furlong, still unasked for speed, was finally called for a response departing the eighth pole, was flashed the whip from the right side then hand ridden to hold sway. NO LA HACE chased three wide and held well during the stretch drive to secure second. KEECHI BULLET three wide for most of the way around the turn, was under a drive spinning from the five path into the lane, rallied mildly to cut into the winner's lead in the final furlong en route for the show. HOPEFUL BOY four wide departing the backstretch, tired. TAHOE WARRIOR took the overland route on the turn, lacked the necessary stretch response. AFTER SHOCK well off the inside throughout, drifted six wide into upper stretch, the widest one of all, and went by several weak and tired ones thereafter to improve position. ZIP QUIK forwardly placed for just over a half, gave way. MR. VANTASTIC raced three wide on the turn and failed to menace. SUMFUN off the inside, was outrun. MOUNT KARAKORUM had a ground-saving journey, was asked for run on the turn, faded.
